Magazine Sale - This year's sale will kick off on August 31 and end on September 13. On the following turn in dates (9/4/07, 9/6/07, 9/11/07, & 9/13/07), sales are collected from the students and tallied. Prizes are bagged and distributed to the students. Help is needed from 8:30am - noon. Day(s) available: _____

First Monday Treats - Small treats (bagels, donuts, fruit, coffee cake, brownies, cookies, whatever ...) Are provided to the staff the first Monday of every month. Treats are to be sent to the office first thing in the morning and can be sent with your child. Month preferred _____

Room Parent - One or Two Room Parents are needed in each grade to help plan parties, bring in treats (especially the younger grades) and to help the teachers. Each teacher supplies dates and specifies help needed for each party that will be held in that grade. Room parents will have a listing of volunteers who have offered to assist with baking treats, etc. Often, (but not always) room parents will plan a party on or near the teacher's birthday. Room Parents are not solely responsible for funding these events. In some cases the teachers will have previously collected money, other times, the room parent solicits donations from the other classroom parents.

Your child's grade: _____
